This Strategic Plan guides IFEX’s collective scope, priorities and approach over the period 2020-2024 in promoting and defending the right to freedom of expression and information (FoE&I). It builds on IFEX’s work over the past 27 years and responds to the unfolding contexts and needs of IFEX members.
INFORMED BY THE CONTEXT, DRIVEN BY IFEX MEMBERS

IFEX's strategic direction was determined by members and supported by IFEX's partners and allies through various consultation processes that explored IFEX's ongoing work and approaches, current contexts, future trends, and priority needs to drive impact.

RESEARCH: The 2020-2024 Strategic Plan development process began in late 2018 with research into key areas of enquiry. This research included independent evaluations of IFEX's ongoing member support mechanisms and IFEX's increasing voice and visibility, as well as a Think Big Tank exploring best practices for network management, engagement and operations.

PRIORITY-SETTING, LED BY MEMBERS: Building on the results of this research in 2019, all members were invited to participate in a network-wide questionnaire and consultation sessions. An independent evaluation among members, partners, allies, donors and staff assessed IFEX's past work, strengths and weaknesses, and informed our future direction, including opportunities and threats. The consultations held at the April 2019 Strategy Conference explored current and future contexts, drivers of change and IFEX's priorities over the next five years. The resulting priorities for IFEX's strategic direction were refined and further developed through a series of subsequent consultations with members throughout the Summer of 2019.

MEMBER-INFORMED STRATEGIC PLAN DEVELOPMENT: The IFEX Council and IFEX staff members worked with the direction provided by members to craft and refine the 2020-2024 Strategic Plan, with final review and approval of the plan in October 2019.

CROSS-CUTTING THEMES & DEFINITIONS

A number of critical themes cross-cut the Strategic Plan reflecting IFEX's values, approach, and shifting contexts. This includes IFEX's commitment to meaningfully integrate equity and inclusion into its work, from operations and internal functions, to programming, content, and member support.

IFEX is also dedicated to respecting diverse experiences and perspectives stemming from intersecting identities and differing contexts. IFEX is committed to freedom of expression and information both online and offline, and considers and integrates a digital lens throughout all aspects of its work.

The following terms used throughout the IFEX 2020-2024 Strategic Plan are intended to be understood as follows.

INTERSECTIONAL IDENTITIES: IFEX recognises that a person's experiences and perspectives of FOE&I issues differ based on their identities (eg. gender identity, race, class, sexuality, language, abilities, age, and nationality among others). These identities are multiple and relational, forming unique intersecting identities. We strive to integrate and respect these nuances in our approach and communications in order to be equitable and inclusive in our work and relationships.

EQUITY AND INCLUSION: IFEX's approaches strive to ensure equity and inclusion of diverse perspectives and voices, and accountability for identity-based FoE&I violations. Our values push us to include the reflection and integration of different social, political, economic, environmental, and cultural contexts, as well as the intersectional identities that exist within them (including gender and sexual identities).

ALLIES: IFEX is dedicated to deepening strategic connections with allies, namely groups and/or individuals who are committed to FOE&I and human rights. These may be existing allies with whom we already work or potential allies who could promote IFEX's messages and expand IFEX's impact.

ENGAGE: Working with stakeholders (e.g. members, allies) on a number of levels, which may include: collaborating with, consulting, facilitating a platform for, providing support to, learning from, and/or considering perspectives and experiences of these stakeholders in IFEX's work.

Please note how IFEX is used in the plan:

“IFEX” or “IFEX Network” refers to the members and the IFEX Secretariat together

“IFEX Members” refers to the organisations that are members of IFEX

“IFEX Secretariat” refers to the staff that work for IFEX
OUR THEORY OF CHANGE

IFEX’s 2020-2024 Theory of Change details the contextual challenges that IFEX will work within and respond to, the assumptions inherent in IFEX’s strategic priorities, and the logical progression from IFEX’s day-to-day work to reaching our vision. It should be noted that IFEX’s Network Goal fundamentally supports the three Thematic Goals as a key driver of change.

CONTEXTUAL CHALLENGES
• Distrust of and attacks on media, NGOs and institutions
• Surveillance of citizens by states and corporations
• Use of technology to control public narrative
• Climate crisis affecting global stability putting human rights at risk

• Rise of corporate interests in creation of legislation and policies
• Growing restrictions on civil society impacting the most marginalised
• Rise in protest movements for change (climate, LGBTQI+, reproductive choice, etc.)
• National security excuse for censorship, surveillance, internet shut-downs, etc.

TACTICS & STRATEGIES

• Regranting
• Convening
• Collaborating
• Strategising

OUR VISION

Everyone is free to exercise their right to freedom of expression and able to access, generate and share ideas and information in any way they choose without fear.

IFEX will promote an inclusive approach that engages and seeks to reduce discrimination against groups disproportionately affected by obstacles to the circulation of information.

IFEX will leverage opportunities to counter the threats to information integrity through work that aims to strengthen the accuracy and reliability of information, as opposed to how it is accessed or how it circulates. IFEX will promote an inclusive approach that engages and seeks to reduce discrimination against groups disproportionately affected by obstacles to the circulation of information.
